Important information for your company's directors

It's an exciting time starting a company and to help support you we have gathered some resources for new directors. Please share these resources with each director in your company.

Our resources are designed to help you learn more about:

- your role as a director
- your responsibilities under the Companies Act 1993
- what an annual return is and how to complete an annual return (your first annual return is due in November 2027.)
- other useful information for directors.

Visit our website for these resources for new directors — <https://companies.govt.nz/new-director-resources>
